

Marge Bartolini has been instrumental in supporting Marin County arts and cultural organizations for decades.

On the Marin Center campus alone, Marge and her husband Lou, founded the Bartolini Gallery and the Redwood Foyer Gallery to support Marin County visual artists with the mission of showcasing the diversity and breadth of works by artists throughout the County. Marge launched the first Marin Symphony in-school program, which brought symphony performers to schools throughout the County. Marge also works tirelessly to ensure the Marin County Fair is the best summer event for the whole community.

Marge has served on many boards and committees including the Marin County Cultural Commission, Marin County Fair committee, the Marin County Arts Council Board, the Marin Symphony Board of Directors, Friends of Marin Center Board of Directors, the Marin Symphony Emeritus Board, the Marin County Parks Open Space, and the Marin Cultural Association Board of Directors. Marge and Lou are also the proud recipients of the Baton Award from the Marin Symphony.

Marge graduated cum laude from the College of Fine Arts at Syracuse University. A Washington DC native, Marge has lived in beautiful Novato for many years.
