

A 43-year resident of San Rafael, Suzie Pollak was founding Executive Director of what is now the Center for Volunteer and Nonprofit Leadership from which she retired after 22 years in 2003. She was subsequently a consultant to nonprofits, including the Marin Center Renaissance Partnership, and currently serves as a member of the Marin County Cultural Services Commission and on the Board of Directors of Sunny Hills Services and Marinspace.

Following her retirement, Suzie served as a founding board member of Marin Villages, in which she continues to be active. She was on the founding Boards of the Nonprofit Insurance Alliance of California, the USF Institute for Nonprofit Management, the Public Policy Council for the Association of California Nonprofits and served on the Boards of the Bothin Foundation and Junior League of San Francisco. She is a grandmother, bridge player and traveler.
